

MATCHING FUNDS

Winter 2007/2008

Short-term Allowance for International Students of RWTH Aachen University During a Period of Exams

International Students enrolled in a degree programme at RWTH Aachen University (Diplom, Magister Artium, Staatsexamen, Bachelor, Master), who are not receiving a stipend and are facing an intense period of exams, may apply for a short-term allowance, which will be granted for two to three months. Students enrolled in postgraduate studies cannot be taken into consideration. The funding is allocated equally by the Doktor Carl-Arthur Pastor Foundation and the German Academic Exchange Service DAAD. A committee will select the eligible candidates. Applications can be submitted in person to the International Office between November 2 and December 14, 2007.

Please go to “News and Events” on the International Office German website for application forms and instructions on the application procedure
